

Excerpt of I wandered Lonely as a Cloud

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
The stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

By William Wordsworth

As lonely as a larch
I wandered as lonely as a larch
That stands on high wild hills,
When all around me grows a grove,
A host of golden daffodils; Beside the lake beneath trees,
Fluttering and shining in the breeze.

continues as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
They sheltered in never ending line

Along the margin of a bay;
Ten thousand saw I at a glace,
Bending their heads in sprightly dance.

Excerpt of I wandered lonely as a cloud

I wandered lonely as a cloud

That floats on high o'er vales and hills,

When all at once I saw a crowd,

A host, of golden daffodils;

Beside the lake, beneath the trees,

Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine

And twinkle on the milky way,

They stretched in never-ending line

Along the margin of a bay:

Ten thousand saw I at a glance,

Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.
