

ISA Young Storytellers Competition 2025 – Results

EYFS In no particular order

- Most exciting dialogue (and an excellently named turtle):
Alley Court Preparatory School - Reception Pearsons House
- Best Villain – for The Evil Octopus King: Demetae Academy - Class 1
- Our Earth Award for a great story with a positive environmental message:
Derby Grammar School – EYFS
- Most creative use of magic – for their shiny necklace that turned people into merpeople:
Radlett Preparatory School – RP
- Most imaginative location – for their ice cream island: Radlett Preparatory School – RE
- Best underwater invention – for their telephone made from seaweed:
St Wystan's School – Reception
- Plot Masters Prize – for the story with the best structure: The Gower School - Les Hiboux
- Most quirky character (for a dark, dark fish with a moustache and eyes that looked like glasses):
Thorpe Hall School – RW
- The Terrific Tale Trophy for the story with the most awesome alliteration:
Wilmslow Preparatory School – Reception
- Adrenalin Award – for a story building suspense and excitement:
Woodlands School Hutton Manor – Reception

Key Stage 1 In no particular order

- Story with the best use of similes: Haberdasher's Castle House School - Pitchford
- Best adventure set in an underwater school: La Petite Ecole Bilingue - Year 2 Starfish
- Story with the most epic battle scene: Parsons Green Prep School - Year 1
- Innovation Award – for the most original story: Salterford House - Year1
- Story with the best cliffhanger ending: St Dominic's Priory - The Ocean Hunt
- The All Together Award - for a great story with a positive message:
St Wystan's School - Form 2
- The Paragraph Party Prize – for the best story with the best disco pirates:
Thorpe Hall School - 1K
- Word Play award – for a story with fun puns and wordplay: Thorpe Hall School - 2V
- Best story written in first person: Wilmslow Preparatory School - Prep 1
- Story with the most daring duo – for their characters Nick & Mimi:
Rosemary Works School - Year 2